Village Gets Trophy For Fine Operation Of Its Sewage Plant

Board Meeting Postponed to Friday Night—Quorum Lacking Tuesday

Antioch's sewage disposal plant was given top rating for its class by the Illinois State Sanitary Water Board.

In recognition of this achievement the board presented a trophy to the village at a banquet Tuesday evening at Springfield attended by Supt. Walter I. Scott and Village Trustee George Garland.

Scott, who operates the sewage disposal plant, received the trophy in behalf of the village. The honor was based on the size of the community, type of plant, and efficiency of operation.

The two village representatives went to Springfield Tuesday morning and returned yesterday.

Because of the absence of Trustees Garland, and Trustees Ed Vos, who is vacationing in Florida and Ernest H. Glenn, who is vacationing in Texas, no meeting was held by the village board Tuesday evening. The absence of the three prevented a quorum.

Mayor James McMillen and Clerk Clarence Shultis sent out word to those who planned to attend the meeting that it has been postponed to Friday.

Island Lake Woman Denies She Strangled Antioch Mother-in-law

Mrs. Jarolimek Also Faces Divorce Action of Her Husband

After being indicted Monday by Lake County Grand Jury which charged her with murder, Mrs. Maxine Jarolimek, 33, of Island Lake entered a plea of not guilty in the death of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Irene Jarolimek, 56, Lake Catherine on Valentine Day.

The elder Mrs. Jarolimek had been strangled to death, according to a coroner's verdict and her daughter-in-law was believed to have choked her with a scarf after having fired a rifle shot which grazed her cheek.

The case is set for trial in May. Judge Bernard M. Decker denied a motion of the defense attorney, Arthur C. Holt who asked dismissal of the murder indictment.

Mrs. Jarolimek, an expectant mother, is in jail at Waukegan where she has been kept since her arrest the night after her mother-in-law's death. Her husband, a patient at Great Lakes hospital, has filed suit for divorce.

Cost of Swimming Pool To Be Found At Meeting Friday

Final Revisions Made This Week; Committee to Report

Final costs of construction of the new Antioch Aqua-Center will be determined tomorrow evening (Friday) when the building committee of the Community Service Corporation will make a report to the entire committee.

Bids on general construction received last Friday in response to special invitation of the building committee, were "very encouraging," and during the week some modification of the plans and specifications have been made, either to make the construction less costly, or to make the plant more efficient.

Although no exact information is available, it is believed that the final total figure which will be reported Friday evening will be only slightly in excess of original estimates.

Dr. G. W. Jensen, president of the corporation said today that if revised figures which will be presented Friday allow, that contracts will be let at once, in order to start work at the earliest possible time. Builders have indicated that actual construction time might be only ten weeks with good weather, and Jensen added that every effort will be made to get the pool completed and ready for use for a good season this year.

Bond Purchases Continue

Bond Drive Chairman William Brook reports that although the original goal of $70,000 has been slightly oversubscribed, a small amount still remains unpaid in pledges.

It is explained that all money to cover the cost of construction must be in hand before construction starts. Brook expressed confidence that the few investors who have not yet settled for their bonds will do so within the next few days.

Nelsons Good Salesmen

Mr. and Mrs. Myrus Nelson, Spafford street, lead all bond salesmen in the total of individuals sold bonds. Their sales totalled about $8,000. Mr. Nelson was a member of the Lions club team number three with C. B. Olson as captain. Team number five, headed by G. Dudley Kennedy was high in dollar volume with a total sale of over $15,000.

Young Republicans Of County Organize Tonight at Waukegan

The re-organizational meeting of Lake County Young Republicans Club scheduled for 8 p. m. today (March 8) at Radio Station WKRS promises to be explosive according to President Curt Hubbard of Libertyville.

Hubbard announced that all three Republican candidates for state's attorney will engage in a debate entitled, "Why I should be elected State's Attorney." Incumbent Robert Nelson and aspirants Tom Moran and Walter Ulick will each be given 10 minutes to talk and two minutes for rebuttal.

"This is the first meeting of the year," said Hubbard, "and is very important. Besides the debate, the main purpose of the meeting is to re-organize the Lake County Young Republicans to better give aid to the Republican party in this important election year."

All interested young Republicans between the ages of 18 and 35 are urged to attend tonight's meeting at WKRS. The meeting will begin at 8 p. m. at the Radio Station which is located on Belvidere just east of Skokie. After the meeting interested parties will be given a short tour of the Radio Station.

February Temperature Even and Slightly Mild

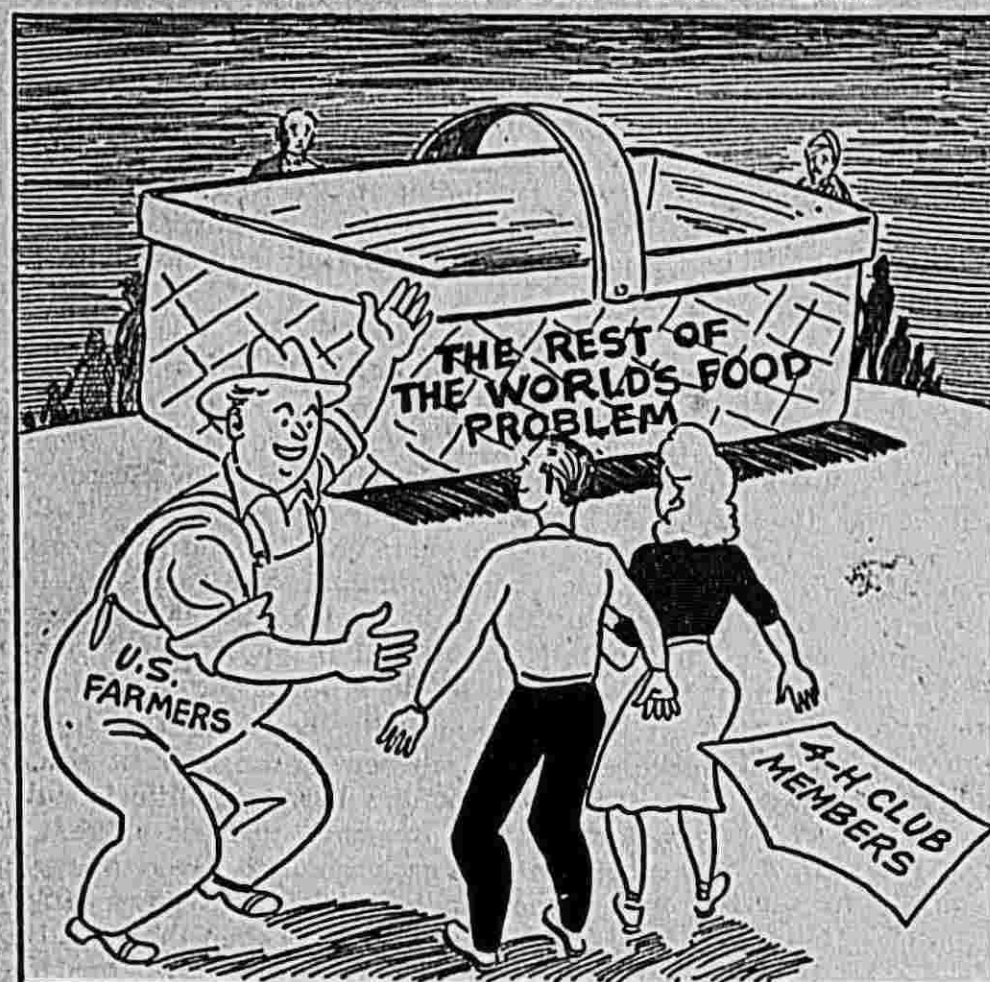

February was an even temperatured month.

The records of Cooperative Weather Observer Roy Kufalk shows that the month with its Leap Year 29 days was a little warmer than usual. The maximum temperature for the daytime ranged between 23 and 30, and got up as high as 43 degrees on the 26th and 29th. The lowest was 2 degrees on the 22nd, escaping sub-zero which is common for February.

The precipitation for the month was 1.35 with the most—55 inch falling on the evening of Feb. 16. Snowfall for the month was 6.9 inches, which is average.

As the sun traveled north and the days grew longer the gradual return to warmer weather was noticeable.

Sylvester Dempsey, 77, a retired Burlington Railroad Co. employee was struck by a Soo Line freight train and killed at the Cedar ave. crossing in Lake Villa at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday.

He was a resident of the Lake Villa Rest Home a block east of the crossing.

Otto Peters of Fond du Lac, Wis., head brakeman, said the train was southbound and Dempsey was seen approaching from the east with his head down apparently trying to beat the train across the track.

The body was carried a distance of 50 feet.

George Good, station agent, estimated the speed of the train at 40 miles an hour.

A spokesman at the rest home said that Dempsey was on an errand, presumably to the post office. He was regarded as one of the most reliable of the guests and was frequently sent on errands.

Dempsey has been at the Rest Home (known as St. Basil's) since 1952, having been transferred there from Manteno hospital. He was born in Chicago and was taken there for burial. There were no known relatives.

Kenneth Coons, 12, Petite Lake, Killed in Accidental Shooting

Kenneth Coons, 12½, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Coons of Petite Lake, died at 5:45 p. m. last Thursday when he was accidentally shot by a companion while they were at play near his home. The friend fell while holding a rifle which was discharged.

The funeral service was held at 3 p. m. Monday at the Strang Funeral home with the Rev. John M. Barbee of the Lakeland Baptist church officiating. Burial was in Grass Lake cemetery. Donations, instead of flowers were sent to the Central Baptist Children's home.

Kenneth was born Aug. 21, 1943 at Atlanta, Ga., and came with his parents to the Antioch community nine years ago. He was a pupil in the seventh grade at Grass Lake school, and a member of the Lakeland Baptist church at Lake Villa.

Surviving besides the parents, Lee and Betty Coons, are three brothers, Tommy, Danny and Ronnie, the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ganes of Chicago, and the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Mildred Coons, Chicago.

By defeating Albany 63 to 42 in the play-off at Whitewater State Teachers college last Friday, the scrappy Wilmot High School Panthers won the right to meet Nathan Hale High of West Allis in the sectional tournament tomorrow night at Salem Central.

It will be the final hurdle before the state tournament at Madison, Wis., the following week.

The Wilmot-Nathan Hale game will be the second event of the evening, the sectional starting off with what is expected to be a battle between Janesville, Big Eight champion, and South Division, the Milwaukee city champion.

Coach Bob Handke's Panthers represent the smallest school in the tournament. There are in excess of 200 students at Wilmot in contrast to 600 at Nathan Hale, 1,200 at Janesville, and 1,800 at South.

Nevertheless the larger schools will be given a battle by the Wilmot regulars. The Panthers lack strong reserves and will not be able to take many foul penalties.

Wilmot has a 19-4 records and ranks seventh in the Little 16. While disposing of the toughest of the smaller schools with ease, it is not known how she will be able to stack up against the larger schools.

The tournament will produce basketball such as Antioch fans rarely get a chance to see so close to home, and many should attend. There will be seats for 2,850 spectators.

The Janesville-Milwaukee South game will start at 7 p. m. and the Wilmot-West Allis game will be at 8:30 p. m.

Grass Roots Opinion

HIGHLAND, ILL., NEWS LEADER: "Economic freedom is the freedom to risk everything on an idea and get into the thick of competition, in the hope of building a profitable enterprise. By contrast, socialism discourages risk-taking, stops competition, and profits hardly anyone."

SAC CITY, IOWA, SUN: "An individual who gets into debt so far that he can never wiggle out, soon goes bankrupt. What happens to a nation that remains head over heels in debt and makes no payment on that obligation? Certainly the credit of that nation will hang in the balance."

CARLSBAD, N. M., CURRENT-ARGUS: "The proposed bill to free natural gas producers from federal control has played hob with party lines in Congress. . . . The issue is not whether natural gas rates may be raised or lowered; that is a side effect. The real issue is whether the federal government should be granted the power to go to a gas well and tell the producer what price he can get for his product as it flows into the line and heads for a city. It seems to us this is an unwarranted grant of power to the federal government. . . ."

"Long and Tangled History"

Considerable space is given in the Hoover Commission report on "Business Enterprise" to the parcel post system. This system, the report observes, "has had a long and tangled legislative history since it was established in 1912. Congress always has been concerned with the possibility that it might compete with private enterprise. . . ."

Ever since parcel post's beginning, Congress has sought to minimize the potentiality of detrimental competition in two ways. One is by limitations on the size and weight of parcels that can be shipped by parcel post. The other is by urging rates sufficient to cover the costs of the service.

This last policy, however, has not been carried out—as the Commission makes abundantly clear. Rates have often remained more or less static in the face of sharply rising costs. According to the Commission, the deficit increased from $99,011,000 in 1949 to $151,497,000 in 1953. This represented about 24 per cent of the cost of providing the service. And direct deficits still continue in spite of some rate increases. Additionally, there are sizable indirect costs resulting from the operation of the service, including government contributions to retirement funds, employee compensation and depreciation.

As a consequence, the Commission formally recommends "that the Postmaster General shall, if the current rates do not cover all costs of the parcel post service (including indirect costs), seek a further increase of rates." This is certainly a moderate position, that should be generally supported by the taxpayers.

Political Panic Is a Danger

A statement that, because of depressed prices, thousands of small farmers are being driven off the land, has been vigorously denied by Secretary Benson. He reports that fewer farmers left the land in the past three years than in the preceding three.

No one should minimize the farm problem. At the same time, we should take care not to exaggerate it out of all reason and make it appear that U. S. agriculture as a whole is in desperate straits.

It will be especially bad—for the farmer and everyone else—if we permit the current situation to stampede us into actions born of political panic in an election year. For example, there is a great deal of talk about falling back on high fixed parity prices. But the unquestionable fact is that it was this policy which created problems worse than those it attempted to solve—by encouraging production for purchase and storage by the government, instead of for consumption. We cannot have a sound farm economy so long as surpluses of incredible size keep piling up.

Whether the soil bank is or is not a workable solution is a matter of controversy. But it has one virtue, so far as we can see now—it would mark a constructive attack on the impossible surplus situation. A key provision is the prevention of diverting land from one surplus crop only to put it in another surplus crop. If, for instance, the soil bank land were used for grazing, we would soon have a livestock problem of far greater dimensions than any we know now.

P. M. A. to Hold Annual Meeting in Chicago March 10

Chicago, Feb. 24 — Chicago's dairy farmers will decide whether to ask for higher supports for dairy products or to endorse the present 75 per cent of parity level on March 10. On that day Pure Milk Association will hold its annual meeting in the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago.

The 15,000-member milk marketing cooperative represents dairy farmers who supply 85 per cent of the fluid milk to the Chicago market.

These dairy farmers will have their turn to endorse or criticize the tentative proposals for a new national farm program at the time of the annual meeting.

According to A. L. McWilliams, general manager of Pure Milk Association, recent meetings in Illinois among farm groups which have been largely attended by grain and livestock farmers are not necessarily representative of dairy farmer thinking.

McWilliams said that while these farm groups have problems similar to dairy farmers, the problems are not identical.

The top speaker for the annual meeting will be Hershel Newson, master of the National Grange, Newson, an Indiana farmer, has headed the national farm organization since 1950. Through his leadership the National Grange has worked for an uncontrolled, stable and prosperous agriculture.

Association delegates, who have been elected as spokesmen by the 130 local units, and other members will hear reports on the operations of the Association from staff members and officers during the morning session.

In the afternoon the business session will be held. New resolutions will be adopted to guide the board of directors in making decisions the coming year.

Open discussion from the floor will bring up issues not covered during the earlier reports.

In 1955 dairy farmers started making a major shift in the methods of handling milk on the farm. With the coming of farm holding tanks on the market, the familiar milk cans are becoming obsolete. The change requires a considerable capital investment.

The delegates will consider an untried approach toward national dairy policy. The National Milk Producers Federation has advanced a self-help plan whereby surpluses can be handled and marketed by dairy farmers.

Association members will also consider new regulations to require the score, grade and quality standard of butter to be printed on the

Beware of Weakened Ice on Lakes, Streams

Now is the time that danger lies thinly hidden in the frozen surfaces of neighborhood ponds, lakes and streams. This is a time of alternating freezes and sudden thaws. Hidden weak spots or flaws develop beneath the deceptive ice surface, waiting to trap a trusting child or an unwary adult.

Each year, hundreds of young Americans in northern sections of the country meet with often tragic thin-ice accidents. Many are drowned that could have lived with foresight on the part of parents and others charged with the safety of our children.

Must we wait until some youngster in this community meets an icy death before we take action to prevent these unnecessary accidents? Let us who are parents join forces with our school and town authorities to put into effect a program that will do much to stop a thin-ice tragedy before it occurs.

The following civic and parental measures are recommended:

1. Take time, and the responsibility to stress "thin-ice" education for your children. Make sure that they understand how sun, fog, rain and varying temperatures change the quality and strength of the ice with treacherous rapidity. Insist that the children do not go skating alone or on untested ice.

2. Make sure that children patronize supervised skating rinks or prepared outdoor areas wherever possible. Banked flat areas can be flooded at minimum cost and effort. Quick freezing and maximum safety are the dividends paid by the shallow depth of such a man (or woman) made skating pond.

3. All unsafe bodies of water should be kept posted with danger or forbidden signs. Tested safe areas should be clearly designated. Remember that ice will be thin over springs and streams flowing into or out of a pond or lake.

4. Provide adequate patrolling of local bodies of water to enforce restrictions on forbidden areas.

5. Testing skating areas daily for thickness and quality of ice. It must be solid, free of cracks, and at least three inches thick for safe use.

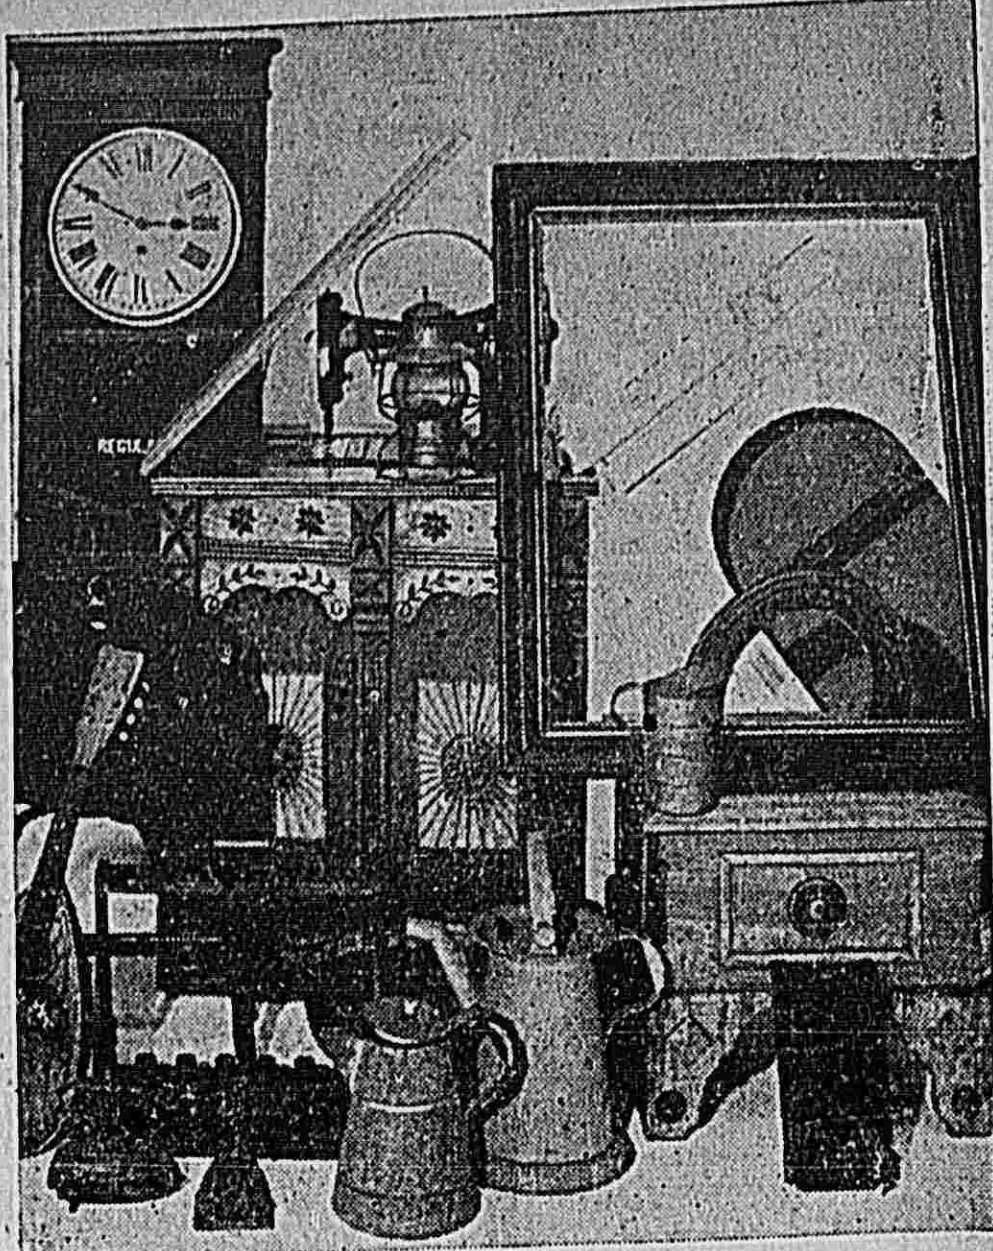

6. Schools should cooperate by holding "winter sports safety" assemblies, making announcements or posting bulletin board notices warning of the dangers of thin ice.

7. An official community "ice-information" headquarters should be established where parents may telephone before allowing their children to go skating.

8. Make provision for adequate ice rescue equipment and training of responsible groups for ice rescue work. Rescue equipment such as ladders, ropes, inflated auto tubes, and the like should be kept handy at all principal skating areas.

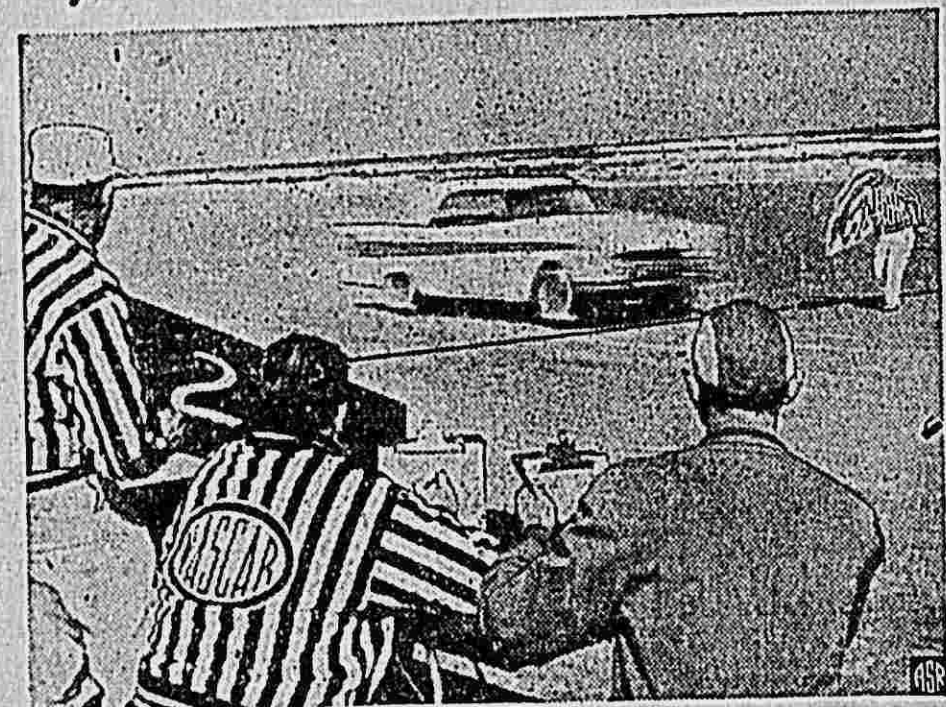

Major responsibility for ice tragedy prevention and rescue rests in the hands of the police, but it should be kept in mind that too little police time and facilities can be allotted to this work. They must have public and family assistance. If a "safe-ice" program were spearheaded by a leading civic group, the cooperation of the entire community could be assured. Through determined practice of these safety measures it can be your child whose life will be saved.

Do-It-Yourself Decorative Aids

Your basement or attic may reveal many items that can be used as decorative aids to bring a dash of color to the home and lend spice and variety to drab interiors. According to Lambert Wise of the Studio of Color Design, Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company, the trend today is toward use of the painted accent piece, which is usually a table, chest, or chair. But the imaginative home decorator is even putting family heirlooms back into service. With a fresh coat of paint in accent colors that harmonize with room furnishings, these items will provide a smart decorative touch.

Plymouth Fury Breaks Speed Records

DAYTONA BEACH, FLORIDA—Breaking all U.S. stock car acceleration records for a measured mile, the new 240-horsepower Plymouth Fury crosses the finish line in Daytona Beach run supervised by The National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing (NASCAR). The Fury also set a new record of 124.01 mph in its displacement class for the "flying mile". In the acceleration run from a standing start, the car averaged a record 82.64 mph.

He Skipped Inoculation

... so he got a scraggly stand of weak plants with bare spots wide-open to erosion. This is an accurate drawing made from a photograph of a non-inoculated alfalfa field, but lack of inoculation can make the same difference in soybeans, clover, lespedeza, vetch, peas or any other legume.

A farmer in Kansas, Warren Miller, reports, "Before inoculating we found it difficult to get a good alfalfa stand. Since inoculating our alfalfa seed we get a good stand every time. Inoculation makes all the difference between success and failure."

Legumes are rich in protein because they use a lot of nitrogen. If inoculated, they can make all or most of their own nitrogen plant food out of the air. They use it for lush growth, big yields, rich protein content, and often for soil enrichment to boot. If not inoculated, they drain nitrogen from the soil and usually yield poorly. That's why agricultural authorities agree it pays big to inoculate — to mix special nitrogen-fixing bacteria with your seed.

Most seed houses handle legume seed inoculants. You can get leaflets on making money with legumes from Nitragin, Milwaukee, Wis.

Scholarships, Camp Trips Await Winners Of Electric Contest

A 1956 4-H program "in which northern Illinois agriculture and home economics club members can aim for two $200 scholarships and 76 camp trips was announced today by Ray T. Nicholas and Helen Volk, Lake County Farm and Home Advisers.

The competition, called the Northern Illinois 4-H Electric Program, is sponsored by the Public Service Company and is open to all club members in nineteen northern Illinois counties including Lake County. Two agricultural and two home economics club members from each of the nineteen counties participating will be awarded one-week camp trips. All winners will be selected from a Blue Award Group—outstanding performers in the competition. Blue Ribbons will be presented to all members of the Blue Award Group.

John Morse of the Grayslake Agricultural 4-H Club as the Agricultural Club member winner of the $200 scholarship in 1955.

According to the Advisers, 4-H'ers can enter the program by using electricity in any or all phases of their regular Ag or Home Economics projects and then making a report in the official 4-H Electric Program folder which can be obtained from local club leaders. Entries in the 4-H Electric Program will be judged by county and state 4-H extension officials on the basis of the club member's general record, his individual work with electricity, and his group work with electricity.

SOCIETY EVENTS

Mrs. Milton Smith Gives Book Review For Woman's Club

Tragedy and humor filled the book "Lincoln's Sons" by Ruth Painter Randall when it was reviewed by Mrs. Milton Smith of Riverside at the Antioch Woman's Club on Monday afternoon.

Lincoln's hardships in his youth and the grief that the family suffered from the early loss of its "Eddie" were given as the reason for the antics with which the remaining three boys were permitted to amuse and frustrate those about them.

Life in Washington brought sorrow in both the loss of son "Willie" and husband "Abel," misfortunes from which Mrs. Lincoln never recovered, leaving her a pathetic and poor woman. Her son "Tad" lived both a short and handicapped life. A speech defect separated him from his place in society.

Robert Lincoln found the responsibilities of his family upon his shoulders and was a man of moderate success. Even though he was the father of three children, Mrs. Smith informed her audience that there are no direct descendants of the famed president to carry on the family tradition.

Mrs. Clarence Spiering, club president, reported on the recent district federation meeting which she had attended at the business meeting.

Garden Section members reported that they would be well represented at the Zion Woman's club as guests on Tuesday.

Channel Lake Club Elects Five Officers

Library News

Lewis Browne has given us many needed books in the field of religion. One of his most useful books is "The World's Great Scriptures," which is an anthology of the sacred books of the principal religions of mankind. Included in the writings are our own Christian Scriptures, Babylonian, Egyptian, Hindu and other Far East religious books, the Talmud and the Koran. "The World's Great Scriptures" was presented to the Antioch Township Library in memory of Mr. Roy Wrigley, father of Mrs. W. S. Nelson of Antioch.

"Two or Three Gathered Together," by Glenn Clark, is a thought-provoking book on the effectiveness of prayer. Mr. Clark believes that mankind, through collective prayer, can accomplish much to "make the will of God prevail" here in our tumultuous world. "This Believing World," also by Lewis Browne, is an excellent companion volume to the above "The World's Greatest Scriptures." "This Believing World" is a fascinating story of the world's great religions. Starting with the ancient belief in myths and magic, Mr. Browne traces the development of religious belief to the present time. "Two or Three Gathered Together" and "This Believing World" were given to the library in memory of Mr. W. E. Cooper.

The board of education and the teachers of Antioch Grade school dined at Adolph's Channel Inn Saturday evening. Games were played and there was dancing to the piano music of Dr. James Kopriva, one of the party of 53.

The seventh grade pupils at Antioch Grade school will see the museum and tour Luick Ice Cream Co. plant at Milwaukee tomorrow if the weather is suitable.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Biel returned last Thursday from Florida where they spent three weeks. They visited relatives at Sarasota.

Interest Runs High in Navy Sign-Up Month

Chief Leslie Long the local Navy recruiter, said that interest was running high during "Navy Sign-Up" month and 18 young men and women have enlisted in the Navy from Lake county.

Increased interest in other branches of the Navy, including surface and air reserve, Waves and officer programs was also noted by Chief Long.

Explained by Chief Long, the "Buddy" program gives young men a chance to enlist, go through "Boot" training, and go home on leave together.

Stressing the school training offered by the Navy, Chief Long added that many of the Navy's specialized service schools are located at Great Lakes and, if they qualify for one of the schools, Lake County youths may spend up to their first year in the Navy near home.

But, said Chief Long, the opportunity to travel is still there for those who want it.

Stoughton Coached by Wilmot's Billy Schnurr

Wilmot can be proud of two outstanding high school basketball teams this year.

In addition to their own which will play in the sectional tournament at Salem Centray tomorrow night, they can be proud of Stoughton which is coached by their own Billy Schnurr, son of Principal and Mrs. M. M. Schnurr.

Stoughton's Vikings finished seventh in the Big 16 ratings after winning the Badger Conference championship and posting a 17-1 record.

After beating Madison, Wis., High 68 to 63, Schnurr's Vikings were stunned by Monroe 70 to 68 in last Friday's sub-regional finals.

Young Schnurr played football, basketball and baseball at Wilmot from 1944 to 1946 and captained the basketball team in his senior year. In 1945 and '46 the Panthers reached the sectional before they were eliminated.

The Stoughton coach was graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1950 with a degree in physical education. Later he received his master of science degree in physical education, served two years in the army as an infantry lieutenant, and after one year of combat in Korea was discharged in 1953. His first coaching job was in baseball at Fort Atkinson. He went to Stoughton in 1954.

Fr. A. J. Henderson Announces Change in Services
Of Holy Week for His Church with Explanations

The Rev. A. J. Henderson of St. Peter's Catholic church announces a change has been made in the Holy Week services of the church at large and explains why the "restored Holy Week," in the following article furnished the Antioch News:

On November 16, 1955, the Sacred Congregation of Rites issued a decree (approved by Pope Pius XII), which provided for the restoration of the Order of Services of Holy Week. The changes involved were not made to create a novelty or "something different" nor to dig ancient ceremonies out of the distant past. They were made for the benefit of our people, to help them re-live the sacred events of the closing days of Christ's life.

Originally the Holy Week rites were performed at the same hours of the same days that the sacred mysteries occurred. The solemn Mass of the Lord's Supper on Thursday evening recalled the institution of the Holy Eucharist. Friday afternoon the liturgical function recalled the Lord's passion and death. A solemn vigil began on Holy Saturday night and ended Easter morning with the joy of the Resurrection. But during the Middle Ages, these religious services were, for various reasons, transferred to the morning hours. Torn from their proper time-setting, they lost their original meaning.

In more recent times another serious change took place. Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of Holy Week had long been holy days of obligation, so that Catholics, freed from servile works, could be present at the morning services. In 1642, because of a shift in economic conditions, Pope Urban VIII was forced to declare the last three days of Holy Week no longer holy days of obligation. With schools, factories, and business places open on these days, the solemn and important liturgical services have been held in churches that in many cases were almost deserted.

These Holy Week services have such dignity, sacramental force, and power for nourishing Christian life (which cannot be supplied by substitutes), that they had to be restored to the people. And so the Church, by simplifying the services and restoring them to their proper time-setting, makes it possible for Catholics to attend in great numbers and to reap the rich spiritual benefits of Holy Week.

Palm Sunday Service

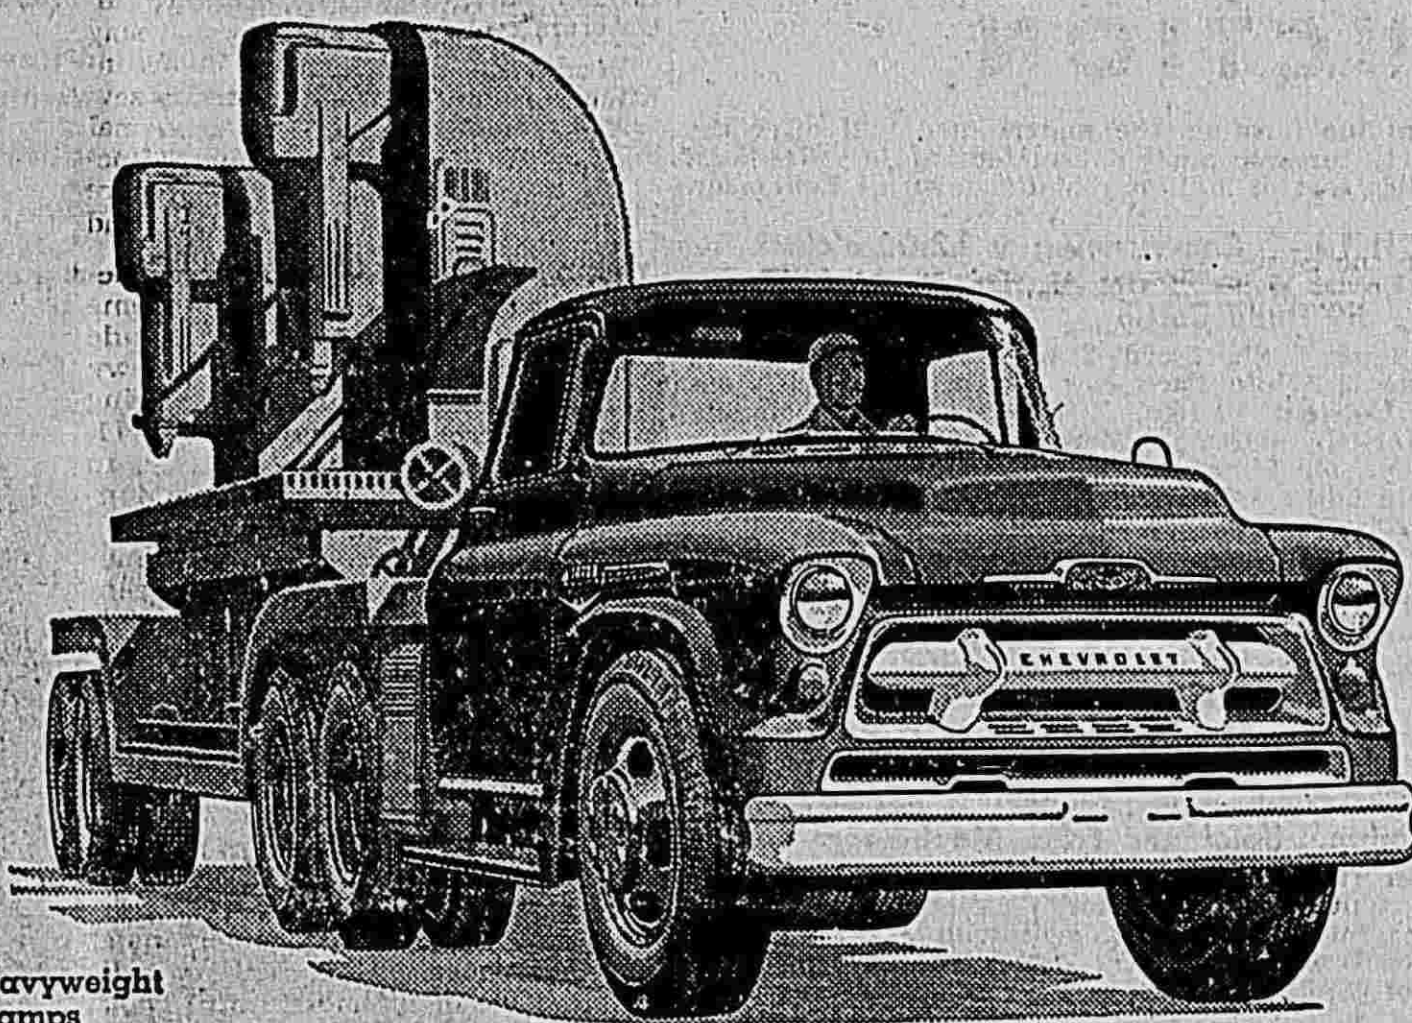

In the restored order of Holy Week, Palm Sunday is entitled "the second Sunday of Passiontide." The divine service for this Sunday may be likened to a two-act drama. The first act is the triumphal procession honoring Christ the King. The second act is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass which stresses the Passion and Death of Christ our Redeemer. In order to give more time and emphasis to the procession, the blessing of the palms and some parts of the Mass have been shortened.

The procession is intended to be a great public demonstration of loyalty in honor of Christ the King; the people and the priest (who wears red vestments) carry the newly-blessed palms and proclaim their devotion and fealty to Christ, in imitation of the disciples and the youths of that first Palm Sunday: "Glory, praise, and honor to Thee, O Christ, our King and Redeemer, Whom children's voices greeted with enthusiastic Hosannas." Centuries before Christ, the prophet Zacharias had predicted to the Jews: "Behold thy King will come to thee . . . poor and riding upon an ass and upon a colt." On the first Palm Sunday, Christ fulfilled that prophecy. And we, in participating in this triumphal Kingship procession of palms, not only re-enact this great event in Christ's life, but actually make it present again in our own lives.

In the Mass of Palm Sunday (celebrated in purple vestments) the dominant theme, the suffering and death of our Redeemer, is portrayed by the Scriptural passages: The Psalms which foretold the Passion; Saint Paul's Epistle to the Philippians, which gives the divine motive for it; and Saint Matthew's Gospel which vividly describes it. And in the sacred action of the Mass, under forms of bread and wine, Christ makes present again His sacrificial death on the Cross.

Holy Thursday
Holy Thursday is the anniversary of the Lord's Supper, when Christ our Lord, the evening before He suffered and died, ate the solemn Passover meal with His disciples. It was at this supper that He instituted the Holy Eucharist, which is a sacrifice, a sacrament, and a memorial of His passion, to be renewed unceasingly by His priests. It was also at this supper, when He when you drive the year-ahead car!

The only cars with which you can compare a Chrysler Windsor V-8 are the other luxury cars... because that's what the Chrysler Windsor V-8 is. But you can own this car for the cost of a medium-priced car! And at this price, it simply defies comparison.

Take the way it handles in city traffic. Something quite wonderful happens. Instead of feeling tense, you're utterly relaxed—thanks to Chrysler's full-time Power Steering System and a host of other brand new Chrysler exclusives. You're handling a big, powerful car that responds like a mind reader. It does the work for you. Your Chrysler is beautifully balanced between the forward thrust of its mighty airplane-type engine and the most powerful brakes in the industry. This car flows! Yet, if you can afford any car in the medium-priced field, you can afford to step up to a Chrysler Windsor V-8. Compare its year ahead new-car features with the other leading cars in its price class. We think you'll agree that it looks and acts like a car that costs $1,000 more than it does!

Foolproof Breakfast—Both Good and Quick

It's a foolproof menu for bringing applause if it features Cinnamon Pecan Brown 'n Serve Rolls.

Orange Wedges
Cereal with Brown Sugar
Cinnamon Pecan Brown 'n Serve Rolls
Beverage

It's a smooth performance—this appetite appealing breakfast—that wins applause from a seasoned theatrical pair, the salt and pepper clowns. It's a foolproof menu, too, with its quick tricks for making the meal in jig time.

While the family enjoy their orange wedges, a fast way to prepare this fruit, mother puts the finishing touches on the hot foods. With the serving of the cereal, the Cinnamon Pecan Rolls are ready to remove from the oven. Cereal with milk, and rolls, supply good protein to make this a satisfying meal. Everyone, too, likes bread and rolls served piping hot in the morning. They are simple to fix when Brown 'n Serve dinner rolls are brushed with butter, sprinkled with cinnamon and sugar, topped with chopped nuts, and popped into the oven to complete their baking.

Brown 'n Serve Cinnamon Pecan Rolls

1 teaspoon melted butter or 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
margarine 2 1/2 teaspoons granulated sugar
6 Brown 'n Serve dinner rolls 1 tablespoon chopped pecans
Brush butter over top of each roll. Combine cinnamon and sugar and sprinkle 1/2 teaspoon of the mixture over each roll. Top with chopped pecans. Bake in a greased, shallow pan in a hot oven (400°F.) for 12 minutes. Serve immediately.
Yield: 6 Cinnamon Pecan Rolls.

Taxpayers Warned To Get Qualified Tax Assistance

"Taxpayers who find it necessary to obtain outside assistance in the preparation of their 1955 Federal tax returns should be careful to consult qualified tax practitioners," Acting District Director Delbert J. Luippold of the Internal Revenue said today.

"Too often taxpayers obtain incompetent persons to assist them in the preparation of their returns," Mr. Luippold declared. "The smaller fee charged by these persons are the usual inducement. The type of person offering this suspect service usually sets up office in some business establishment where temporary desk space may be obtained."

"Taxpayers requiring assistance in complex matters should consult qualified tax practitioners whenever possible. This is not designed to eliminate the highly valuable assistance often provided by company cashiers, auditors and bookkeepers or bank personnel who help their employees—a service we recommend and appreciate.

"I feel it imperative however that taxpayers who seek dubious assistance in the preparation of their returns be reminded that they must stand responsibility for the accuracy of their entries and calculations."

Mr. Luippold also reminded taxpayers that April 16 is the deadline for the filing of 1955 income tax returns and that checks or money orders accompanying the returns should be made payable to the Internal Revenue Service, and mailed to him at 22 West Madison Street, Chicago 2, Illinois.

Jersey Breeder to Give Four-H Member a Calf

The Ann Arbor Jersey Dairy farm, Wadsworth, through its herdsman, Wallace Runnington is making an award of a purebred Jersey heifer calf in an essay contest, according to an announcement by Farm Adviser Ray T. Nicholas.

Any Lake County Agricultural 4-H Club member with facilities for raising a calf is eligible to compete in the essay contest. Club members will write an essay of 300 words or less on the subject: "Why I Would Like to Own a Purebred Jersey Calf." Entries will be judged on the basis of aptness, sincerity, and convincingness. All entries must be sent to the farm adviser, and postmarked not later than April 25, 1956.

Ann Arbor Farm is a breeder of excellent type, high producing Jersey cattle. The club member who receives the calf will have an outstanding foundation animal for a purebred herd, states farm adviser Ray T. Nicholas.

Because then you'll tingle with the flash-fast power response that's yours from Buick's big 322-cubic-inch V8 engine—where horsepower and compression ratios hit lofty new peaks, and road command hits a soaring new level...

Because then—and only then—will you feel the absolute smoothness and the electrifying action of today's new Variable Pitch Dynaflo*—where the first inch of pedal travel does new wonders for getaway and cruising and gas mileage—and where flooring the pedal switches the pitch for the most spectacular safety-surge in America today.

Atlantic and Pacific Store's Open House Set for Next Tuesday

The Atlantic and Pacific Company will have its grand opening of an enlarged food store next Tuesday.

The 28 by 125 foot addition to the east side of the Lake st. building has made possible a big expansion and with the result that a greatly increased trade is expected.

A new houseware department and a new self-service produce department have been added and easier access to other departments is made possible through wider aisles.

The meat department has been enlarged, and according to Manager Anton F. Kaiser, 80 per cent more checkout space is provided. There will be nine checkout counters instead of five and these will include an express counter where persons with fewer than six items may go for speedy checkout service.

The A & P store is one of the several reasons that Antioch is drawing on an even wider shopping area.

Fr. Henderson Announces .

washed their feet, that He gave to His disciples and to us an example and a command of brotherly love. Christian charity, an unselfish and divinely-motivated love, is the theme of this day.

In the restoration of Holy Week, provision is made for a "Mass of the Christ" to be celebrated during the day by the Bishop in his Cathedral church. During this Mass (at which only the Bishop may receive Holy Communion), he blesses the Oil of Catechumens and the Oil of the Sick and prepares the sacred Chrism—the three holy oils which will be used in the administration of Sacraments in his diocese during the coming year.

But it is in the evening (to begin between 5 and 8 o'clock) that the "Mass of the Lord's Supper" is to be celebrated for the faithful in all the churches. A feature of this mass is the re-enactment of its Gospel-narrative (where it is practicable) in the ceremony of the washing of the feet. And it is only at this evening mass that the faithful are to receive Holy Communion, from the freshly-consecrated ciborium. The hosts that remain are carried in procession to the repository, where the faithful will adore their Eucharistic Lord during the evening hours. These Hosts will be given to the faithful in Holy Communion during the divine service on the afternoon of Good Friday.

In the next issue of this paper changes in the Good Friday and Holy Saturday services will be explained and a complete Holy Week schedule be published.

Special Farm Operating Loans Available to June 30

Representative Marguerite Stitt Church (R), Illinois, announced today that she had been informed that the Department of Agriculture has authorized the making of special farm operating loans to eligible farmers in Illinois pursuant to Public Law 727. This authority extends through June 30, 1956.

These loans are made to farmers whose needs cannot be met, for a temporary period, from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies or the regular programs of the Farmers Home Administration. Loan funds may be used to meet normal operating expenses, but not for the repayment of existing debts. The applicant must be primarily engaged in farming and have reasonable prospects for success in his operations.

Farmers desiring information about these loans should get in touch with the local county office of the Farmers Home Administration serving the area in which they live.
